What business purpose is served in Mr. Detwiler, a Leader shareholder, quizzing ODOD as to whether their ostensible collection actions are current. What agenda is Mr. Detwiler pursuing? He is working to force the ODOD to take monies out of a company (a) that ODOD is ostensibly helping from a development perspective, and (b) in which he is a shareholder whose interests are better served having the company use those funds to increase shareholder value.

Joselyn:

Can you check to see if we have received any recent payments from Leader. I haven't seen any, but that may not be telling factor.

Hi Bob,

I would like to ensure that I have all the current public information available concerning Leader Technologies Incorporated. My last request for an information update was 1/11/2006. I want to make certain that I have any changes or other agreements that may supersede my information complete to that date.

Specifically, I want to know if the Cognovit Promissory Note dated July 20, 2005 is still in effect. That document states: "Payments one through twenty-three shall each be made in the amount of Four Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($4,000.00). The final payment, due July 1, 2007, shall be in the amount of One Hundred Fifty-Eight Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($158,000)." Your response showed that this agreement was still active as of my 1/11/2006 request.

Has there been any additional correspondence between the Department of Development and Leader Technologies?

Has Leader Technologies been making timely payments in the amounts specified ($4,000.00 per month) without interruption or delay?

9/26/2006

I appreciate your involvement in this matter and your responsiveness to my requests.

I understand that this document is considered Public Information.

Thanks,

Ed
